Guadalcanal Province Fisheries Ordinance 2009

AN ORDINANCE to regulate fisheries in the Guadalcanal Province pursuant to section 10 of the Fisheries Act 1998.

ENACTED by the Guadalcanal Provincial Assembly pursuant to the Provincial Government Act 1997.

PART 1 - PRELIMINARY

Citation and commencement

1. (1) This Ordinance is called the Guadalcanal Province Fisheries Ordinance 2009.

(2) This Ordinance comes into force on the date it is published in the Gazette.

Interpretation

2. (1) In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires –

“customs entitled person” in respect of an area of reef, lagoon or other area of Solomon Islands waters means any member of a tribe, line or other group entitled to full fishing rights over that area under customary law;

“customary owner” means a tribe, line or other customary group that owns customary fishing rights;

“Executive” means the Guadalcanal Provincial Government Executive;

“fisheries development project” means any project for the development of fisheries involving fishing operations in areas subject to customary fishing rights and substantial investment in the development of physical facilities or infrastructure in such areas, but does not include ongoing small-scale projects for the provision of loans, engines, gear and other assistance to artisanal fishermen;

“marine resources” includes marine areas to which this Ordinance applies;

“recording officer” means a person appointed under section 11

3. This Ordinance applies only to the fisheries areas, including foreshores and freshwater fisheries areas within Guadalcanal Province. Application

4. The objectives of this Ordinance are -- Objectives

- (a) to promote the development and management of marine resources;
- (b) to promote maximum use of marine resources for the purposes of improving the living standards of customary fishing right owners, including employment opportunities;
- (c) to promote hygienic and reliable markets high quality and standards of marine resources and products;
- (d) to promote development of subsistence and artisanal fisheries for customary fishing right owners, including their education and training for the purposes of paragraph (c) or for consumption by them and others;
- (e) to promote research, education and training for the purposes of understanding marine resources to achieve and maintain sustainable use and management when using marine resources or fisheries areas.

PART 2 - RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OF MARINE RESOURCES

5. (1) No person shall undertake any research or development of marine resources in the Province unless the research or development is approved under this Ordinance. Approved research and development

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

(3) The court may, in addition to the penalties set out in subsection (1), order the confiscation and forfeiture of any thing used in relation to an offence committed under subsection (1).

(4) This Part does not apply to any development by customary owners within their customary fishing rights areas.

Power to approve
research and development
projects

6. (1) The Executive has the following powers under this Part –
 - (a) subject to conditions, to approve any fisheries research or development projects within fisheries areas that are not covered under customary fishing rights recorded or verified under this Ordinance or by customs.
 - (b) subject to conditions, to approve any fisheries research or development projects within customary fishing rights recorded or verified under this Ordinance or by customs;
 - (c) to reject an application for or vary, suspend or cancel any approval under paragraphs (a) and (b), or vary or impose new conditions on such approvals.
- (2) A person may apply to the Executive for an approval under subsection (1) –
 - (a) in Form No. 1 set out in Schedule 1;
 - (b) attaching the application fee listed in Schedule 2;
 - (c) providing other documents or information required by the Executive.
- (3) The Executive shall not approve an application under subsection (1)(b) unless it is satisfied that –
 - (a) the customary owners affected by the proposal are first consulted pursuant to this Ordinance;
 - (b) applicant and the customary owners have made or will make an agreement to such proposal pursuant to section 8.

7. (1) When considering an application under this Part, the Executive and the relevant house of chief shall take into account –

- (a) the relevant principles set out in section 4 of the Act;
- (b) the impact of the proposal on the marine resources and the marine areas;
- (c) the impact on the ecology of the area;
- (d) the impact on the surrounding community and its interest.

(2) An application for an approval under subsection (1)(b) shall be sent to the house of chiefs, the customary owners and other interested persons within the subject area for their views, comments and recommendations on the proposal.

(3) The Executive shall ensure that a public notice (cost to be paid by the applicant) is posted within the areas of the proposal and other areas or medium and in such manner it thinks fit, setting out the following –

- (a) the proposed location of the project;
- (b) the nature and duration of the development or research;
- (c) the customary owners that may be affected;
- (d) the period of not less than 30 days within which views, comments and objections are to made;
- (e) any other matter required by the Executive of the relevant house of chief.

(4) Any objection made under subsection (6) shall be in writing and made to the relevant house of chiefs, a copy of which shall be sent to the Executive.

(5) The Executive may facilitate the process by a foreign investor to acquire leasehold interest within customary fishing rights areas, in relation to the requirements under Part V of the Lands and Titles Act.

(6) The officers of the Provincial or national Government may attend meetings of the house of chiefs for the purpose of this Ordinance.

Agreements

8. (1) An agreement between an applicant and customary owners may be in Form No..... set out in Schedule 1.

(2) The applicant shall send a draft of the agreement to the Executive and the relevant house of chief for endorsement in writing.

PART 3 - REGULATION OF CUSTOMARY FISHING AREAS

Limits of customary
fishing areas

9. (1) No customary fishing rights area conferring exclusive rights to use or harvest marine resources shall exceed 3 nautical miles from the low water mark of each island in the Province.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the customary fishing rights areas outlined in Schedule 3, and in waters enclosed by each group of islands in the Province.

Recording of customary
fishing areas

10. (1) A customary fishing rights area may be verified and recorded in accordance with this Part, without affecting any other process of recording such rights in another Act.

(2) Customary owners may, through a representative, apply, in Form No... set out in Schedule 2 and accompanied by the application fee set out in Schedule 1, to the Provincial Secretary to verify and record their customary fishing rights area.

Recording
officer

11. (1) When the Provincial Secretary receives an application under subsection (1), the Secretary shall appoint public officer or a qualified person as a recording officer to undertake the verification and recording of the customary fishing rights area.

(2) A recording officer has the powers of a magistrate for the purposes of administering oaths, calling witnesses, taking and recording of evidence through documents or witnesses, but shall not be bound by the rules of evidence.

(3) The recording officer may appoint a committee consisting of not more than 5 members comprising persons who have knowledge and experience with customs of the subject area to assist and advise the officer in hearing an application.

(4) A person appointed under this section shall not be directly or indirectly related to the applicant or connected with the subject area.

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE ACT
(CAP. 121)*CUSTOMS AND EXCISE (MSG TRADE AGREEMENT DUTIES)
ORDER 2011

IN exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section 7 of the Act, I make this Order to implement the Trade Agreement among the MSG Countries –

Citation
and
commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Customs and Excise (MSG Trade Agreement Duties) Order 2011, and commences on the date of publication in the Gazette.

Definition

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires –

“Agreement” means the Revised Trade Agreement (2005) among the Melanesian Spearhead Group Countries;

“MSG Country” means Fiji, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands or Vanuatu.

Application

3. This Order applies only to goods imported into Solomon Islands from another MSG country and gives effect to Article 5 and Article 9 of the Agreement.

Goods and duties

4. (1) The rate of import duties in respect of goods that are imported into Solomon Islands from another MSG country shall be amended by deleting existing rates and replacing with ‘free’, except for those goods rates of which are set out in the Schedule to this Order which gives effect to Article 9 of the Agreement and the following goods which are excluded from the Agreement:

- (a) all items of Chapter 22 (Beverages, Spirits and Vinegar) except items described in IIS Tariff Code 2201, 2202 and 2209;
