“Planning Scheme” means the Local Planning Scheme applicable to Honiara City approved under the Town and Country Planning Act (Cap.154).

PART 2 – BUSINESS LICENCES

3. (1) No person shall carry on a business within Honiara City unless the business is licensed under this Ordinance.

Licensing of business

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction –

(a) to a fine not exceeding 5,000 penalty units; and

(b) a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units for each day on which the offence continues from the date on which any notice issued under subsection (3) is served on the person.

(3) If an authorised officer reasonably believes that a person has committed an offence under subsection (2), the officer shall issue and cause to be served on the person a written notice of the commission of the offence.

Granting or refusing of licence

4. (1) The Council may, upon application by a person (the applicant) in the approved form and accompanied by the appropriate fee –

- (a) grant a business license authorising the licensee to carry on the business while the licence is valid in accordance with this Ordinance, subject to any conditions which the Council may at its discretion impose, in particular conditions requiring that –
 - (i) the business be carried on, or not be carried on, from specified premises or a specified area;
 - (ii) the business be carried on, or not be carried on, during specified hours; or
 - (iii) the business to provide, or not to provide, particular goods or services; or
- (b) refuse to grant a business licence for any grounds listed in subsection (3).

(2) The Council may –

- (a) require an applicant to provide further information relevant to his or her application; and
- (b) defer the consideration of the application until the information required under paragraph (a) is provided to it.

(3) The Council may refuse to grant a business licence on any of the following grounds –

- (a) the carrying on of the business would contravene any law in force in Honiara City or the applicant has not obtained the legal authority required under another written law to carry on the business;

- (b) the business involves an activity that requires particular skills or qualifications and the applicant fails to satisfy the Council that appropriately skilled or qualified persons would carry out the activity;
- (c) the business is proposed to be carried on in a zone in which such businesses are not a permitted activity under the Planning Scheme;
- (d) the applicant is not lawfully entitled to use any premises from which the applicant proposes to carry on the business for that purpose;
- (e) the premises from which the business is proposed to be carried on do not comply with the Honiara City Council Building Ordinance;
- (f) any premises from which the business is proposed to be carried on are not fit for that purpose;
- (g) within the 2 years immediately before the date on which the Council received the application for the licence, any of the following is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance -
 - (i) the applicant;
 - (ii) if the applicant is a partnership, any partner of the applicant; or
 - (iii) if the applicant is a corporation, any director of the applicant;
- (h) the Council is satisfied that carrying on of the business would be detrimental to the health, welfare, or convenience of the inhabitants of Honiara City;
- (i) the Council is satisfied that carrying on of the business would be detrimental to the order or good government of Honiara City; or
- (j) any other reason which the Council is satisfied to be in the public interest.

(4) If a business would involve a nationally regulated activity, the Council may not refuse to grant a business licence for that business on any ground that –

- (a) is substantially the same as a ground required or permitted to be taken into account by the relevant national decision maker in deciding to licence the activity;
- (b) is exempted under the law regulating that activity.

(5) The Council must not issue a business licence unless the applicant has paid –

- (a) if the application is granted before 1 July in the year for which the licence is sought, the full annual licence fee; or
- (b) if the application is granted after 1 July in the year for which the licence is sought, an amount equivalent to half of the annual licence fee.

Licence not transferrable

5. A business licence is not transferrable unless the transfer is authorised under the law that regulates the nationally regulated activity.

Duration of business licence and annual licence fees

6. (1) A business licence is valid from 1 January to 31 December in each year or the date on which it is first granted until 31 December in the same year, subject to its revocation or renewal under this Ordinance.

(2) No business licence shall be issued or renewed unless the applicable annual licence fee prescribed in s4(5) is paid.

Form of business
licence

7. The City Clerk or an officer authorised by the City Clerk must issue the business licence in the approved form specifying the following –

- (a) the name and contact details of the licensee;
- (b) the type of business for which it is granted;
- (c) the period during which it is current;
- (d) any conditionss imposed under subsection 4(1)(a).

8. (1) A licensee who carries on a business in breach of any condition of the business licence commits an offence and is liable on conviction – Licensee to comply with licence conditions

- (a) to a fine not exceeding 5,000 penalty units; and
- (b) to a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units for each day on which the offence continues from the date on which a notice issued under subsection (1) is served on the person.

(2) If an authorised officer reasonably believes that a person has committed an offence under subsection (1), the officer shall issue and cause to be served on the person a written notice of the commission of the offence.

9. (1) A licensee, other than a licensed hawker, who fails to display a copy of the licence in a conspicuous place at the main premises from which the business to which the licence relates is carried on commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 1,000 penalty units. Licensee to display licence

(2) A licensed hawker who fails to carry the licence while hawking commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 1,000 penalty units.

10. A licensee who fails to notify the Council of any material change to the licence information as soon as possible after becoming aware of such change commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 1,000 penalty units. Licensee to notify changes to licence information

11. The Council may revoke a business licence or vary the conditions on a business licence if –

- (a) any licence information provided by the licensee, or cause to be provided by the licensee, was, at the time it was provided, false or incorrect and the licensee failed to notify the Council of the false information and correct the information in writing. Council may revoke or vary conditions on business licence
- (b) the licensee contravenes a licence condition;
- (c) the licensee is not lawfully entitled to occupy or use any premises from which the licensee is carrying on the business;

- (d) if the licence for the nationally regulated activity has expired or has been cancelled under the laws regulating such activity;
- (e) any of the following is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance –
 - (i) the licensee;
 - (ii) for a licensee partnership, any partner of the applicant; or
 - (iii) for a licensee corporation, any director of the applicant.

Renewal of business
licence

12. (1) The Council may, upon application by the licensee in the approved form and accompanied by the appropriate fee –

- (a) renew the business licence, subject to any new or varied conditions; or
- (b) refuse to renew the licence.

(2) The Council may –

- (a) require an applicant to provide further information relevant to the renewal application; and
- (b) defer the consideration of the application until the information required under paragraph (a) is provided to it.

(3) If an application for renewal has been lodged but has not been determined by 31 December in any year, the licence is taken to be renewed until the renewal application is granted or refused.

(4) The Council must not issue a new business licence unless the applicant has paid the required annual fee.

(5) The Council may refuse to renew a business licence on any grounds under section 4(3).

PART 3 - MISCELLANEOUS

13. (1) A person aggrieved by a decision mentioned in subsection (2) if the decision was made in relation to a business that would involve a nationally regulated activity may, in the approved form, appeal within 28 days of the decision to the Minister.

Appeal against decisions - nationally regulated
activities

(2) The following decisions of the Council are appealable under subsection (1) -
