BILLS AND LEGISLATION COMMITTEE

Call for Submissions

The National Parliament of Solomon Islands Bills and Legislation Committee is conducting its inquiry into the Public Health Emergency Bill 2021 that is now before Parliament. As part of its inquiry, the Committee is calling for written submissions from individuals, groups and organizations who wish to express their views, knowledge or experiences on the subject matter covered by the Bill. In this regard, the Committee is also inviting these individuals, groups or organisations to appear as witnesses if they wish to come before the Committee to present their submissions. Those who wish to appear as witnesses have the option of a closed or open session. If you intend to appear before the Committee please indicate this in your written submission or communicate your intention to the Committee Secretariat through our contacts provided.

The Committee hopes to collect these submissions as evidences of its inquiry into the Bill and report to Parliament. The closing date for written submissions is at the close of business (4:30pm) on Friday 2 April, 2021.

Copies of the Bills can be accessed under "what's new in parliament" on the National Parliament website (www.parliament.gov.sb) or through request to the Committee Secretariat.

Submissions should be sent to: The Chairman, Bills and Legislation Committee, National Parliament of Solomon Islands, P.O. Box G19, Honiara; or email it to the Committee Secretariat at: ComSec@parliament.gov.sb or wilson.anii@parliament.gov.sb

If you would like further information about the inquiry or about making a submission, please contact the Committee Secretariat by email or phone 24164/24323.

Hon. John Maneniaru

Chairman
